The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Dept. of Public Safety in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2014-2015 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2014. The use of these funds in this county requires a local match in the amount specified above.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

Sex Offender Evaluation and Treatment	Parent Family Skill Building
Temporary Shelter Services	Interpersonal Skill Building
Restitution/Community Service	Tutoring/Academic Enhancement
Skill Building	Vocational Development
	Mentoring

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

- * Serious School Problems
- * Pro-social peer rejections and youth association with others who are involved in delinquent/criminal activity.
- * Parent/Guardian/Custodian Supervision Skills

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain:	Stanly County youth involved with the juvenile justice system associates with others who have been involved in delinquent/criminal activity higher than state average.
Individual Domain:	Juveniles involved in Stanly County juvenile justice system are more likely to be victims of sexual, physical, emotional abuse or neglect.
Family Domain:	Parental support and/or parental enhancement skills needed for juvenile court referred youth. Access services that provide best practices and have ability to engage families are a need in the community.
School Domain:	Youth involved with Stanly County juvenile justice system have increased risk of school behavior issues reflected in long-term suspensions and more than 10 unexcused absences.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
